Foreword

Commencement brings with it a mood of reminiscence, regret for the things we leave behind, and finally an eager hope of expectation for the things to come. In looking back our theme is exemplified by the world of yesterday in San Francisco's Golden Gate Exposition. Our look into the future reveals the world of tomorrow as it is brilliantly portrayed by the New York World's Fair.

To those who have enthusiastically worked with me in staging our brief but colorful panorama, my sincere thanks and appreciation and may this book bring to them the happiness and satisfaction in achievement that it brought to me.

TREASURE ISLAND

Gleaming palaces and towers set off by thousands of trees and shrubs make an incomparable setting for the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island in San Francisco Bay.

CHAPTER THE FIRST

Looking Backward at a glance,

we find our eyes are filled with mist

For Memories crowding in together bring us thoughts we can't resist . . .

Dedication

Mr. Daniel A. Primont

A striking emblem flies above
the tower of success.
It gladdens weary hearts along the road to happiness
For that bright flag that leads our steps and guided many more
Is the steady sign of LEADERSHIP that you so nobly bore.

We've reached another milestone and at the crossroads ere we part,
We want to firmly grip your hand and wish you from the heart
The very best that life can hold and fondly dedicate
Our final crown, our yearbook, on the day we graduate.

Looking Back—When

1935-1936. They marched us to a floor in the annex and we were informed that one year of our lives was to be spent there; it was the same as being back in grammar school. We were proud of the fact that we were the first class to occupy the annex; it was up to us to make something of it, and we did just that. Yes, we entered the main building only for sewing and shop, and we never got any further than the first floor. It was really funny. They handed us a list of periods and we went wherever we were directed. We wanted to act like big shots but they didn't give us a chance; we were the lowest beings in high school. The principal? We only caught glimpses of him, but the other fellows said he was all right so we let it go at that. After the magazine drive, a class in the annex was awarded the prize. In the Thanksgiving program, our basket won the highest award. Boy, we felt important. Our first rally what noise! One of our friends added to the din by swinging an old cow bell. We looked up one day and the teacher shook hands with us and wished us good-luck. Yes, we were now sophomores. We had climbed one notch of the ladder.

1936-1937. They crowded us into classrooms that seemed as old as the hills. Again, we were handed cards. Remember the fools we made of ourselves? The bell rang and the floors cleared as if a wand had been waved. We stood alone in the deserted hall until a teacher directed us to our class rooms. Each room had a number like a prison, and we were all inmates. We attended the afternoon dances and applauded when the jitterbugs began to "swing it". We laughed our heads off when the bald-headed salesman cracked those ear-splitting jokes. It didn't seem difficult to sell subscriptions. Our school reached the peak in magazine sales and our library increased tremendously.

1937-1938. As juniors we organized a class and tried to raise money by selling cute orange and blue earmuffs and kerchiefs. Lady Weather was against us, and we had the warmest winter in ages. We joined clubs and took part in plays and dances. Our eyes popped out when the magazine drive netted over a thousand dollars. We swelled our chests when the Tennis Team became county champs; the Gym Team took second place in the State Meets. We started to acquire taste in clothes and came to school dressed in the latest fads. The older a fedora, the better. The girls came to school dressed with sweet tinkling bells that drove the teachers wild. We met more people, and didn't blush when we were introduced to pretty girls. The teachers gave us more homework and we left more books in school. What a life!

1938-1939. Under the leadership of our new faculty adviser, Mr. Primont, our finances came out of the ether and took on the appearance of prosperity. Thanksgiving Day came and we sat in the stands, cheering our team to victory. We swarmed down like bees and broke the goal posts, placed them on our shoulders and marched down dear, Old Bergenline Ave. What a traffic jam! The police were peeved, but even they realized this was a great moment. The old chariot came back to its owners and it really looked good painted orange and blue. The teams took on new life. Our basketball team won successive victories and swept aside opposition. The Senior Reception We paid a dollar for each ticket but it was worth it. Your girl looked like a queen and you noticed the envious eyes of the stag line. The O & B Board was chosen and we knew that our literary masterpiece was in capable hands. The two World's Fairs were taken as a theme and everyone began working. Soon the teachers began discussing the Senior Essays. We found ourselves haunting the library and we worked collecting sufficient material. The second Reception arrived and we took out the old sock containing the money that we had been saving all year. What a night we made of it! Union City was splashed all the colors of the rainbow and we got a taste of a playboy's life. Money flowed like water and we came home three in the morning. Graduation Night came and the auditorium was filled with proud parents. We saw our mothers and fathers in the audience and a lump came to our throats. The rest of the days were spent in collecting autographs of all our friends and teachers. The last day came and we found ourselves looking at a silent school. We squared our shoulders and started walking, smiling and reflecting at what a lot of water had passed under the bridge.

CLASS OF JANUARY 1940

Faculty Adviser.....Mr. K. C. Eveland

Officers

President	J. Bonin
Vice-President	F. Ricereto
Secretary	E. Jenkins
Treasurer	R. Gruber

This class of over two hundred students is set to take on the role of Senior B's. During this past term they held their "April Fool Dance" on March 31, which was attended by a large crowd and was spotlighted by a big April Fool Door Prize, (Lucille Conradt was the lucky winner).

The Senior Reception, tendered to the graduating seniors by the class was held on Friday, June 16th.

CLASS OF JUNE 1940

Faculty Adviser Mr. A. Pardee

Officers

President J. Murney
Vice-President C. Conran
Secretary M. Cochrane
Treasurer A. Husted

This class of over 225 students was organized on October 12, 1938, under the leadership of Mrs. Aaron, who is now on a leave of absence. Mr. Pardee has been chosen to act in her place as faculty adviser.

The class was active in the running of the St. Patrick's Day dance, having been in charge of the printing and selling of tickets for that affair.

The latest effort of the class has been to teach the boys of the class how to dance.

CLASS OF JANUARY 1941

Faculty Adviser Mr. George Leiderman

Officers

President Warren Gallagher
Vice-President Lee Minucci
Treasurer Dorothea Kuplin
Secretary Hilda Baker

It wasn't until late in the term that the Jr. A class was organized. On May fourth they met and elected their officers and faculty adviser.

They lost no time in having their first activity, which was a dance held on Friday afternoon, May nineteenth. This venture was a credit to the class, in that it was very successful. The committee for the dance was headed by Vincent Di Gennere, assisted by Calvin Teschner, Francois Spagneli and Peter Savarine.

THE TOWER OF THE SUN

In the foreground is the Fountain of Western Waters, replete with statuary, in the Court of Pacifica on Treasure Island where the Golden Gate International Exposition is being held. At the south end of the Court of the Seven Seas rises the brilliantly lighted Tower of the Sun.

At the end of a session when day was through
Can you recall what you used to do?
Was it to practice, to sing or to spend
Some time at a club meeting with a friend?

Mr. H. S. Stahler

For your splendid work and a will to carry through
Those ideals and aspirations for the Orange and the Blue
A sincere Appreciation for what more can we do
Than to tell you, Mr. Stahler, of the thanks we owe to you.

Mr. J. C. French

Along the way we pause and think of things well done and Victories won
And stop to ask ourselves one thing, who helped us when we had begun?
For steady guidance year to year and leading on through every fear
We give to Mr. French, our thanks and wish him everything sincere.

ART CLUB

Faculty Adviser Miss H. Nesslage

Officers

President A. Caliandro

Vice-President C. Sarkisian

Sec'y-Treas. E. Casper

This term Arts and Crafts were the major interest of all Art Club members. The interest had reached such a peak that the first three meetings of the month were devoted to different types of Craft work. The last meeting of the month was given over to a lecture on Art Appreciation by Miss Nesslage.

To those pupils who are unable to fit Art on their schedules the Art Club affords a means for them to continue their art work. The club serves to promote the study and appreciation of art in Union Hill. The members have helped supply and design scenery and posters for school plays, and have made numerous visits to Art Museums, and also have devoted some time to outdoor sketching.

A series of lectures were organized, and included talks by Mr. N. Serene, sculptor and Mr. C. De Sina, architect. The outstanding activity of the Art Club was the seventh annual Exhibit and Tea which was held on May 26th. Here the work that had been accomplished in the department was shown to the parents and the teachers.

BIOLOGY CLUB

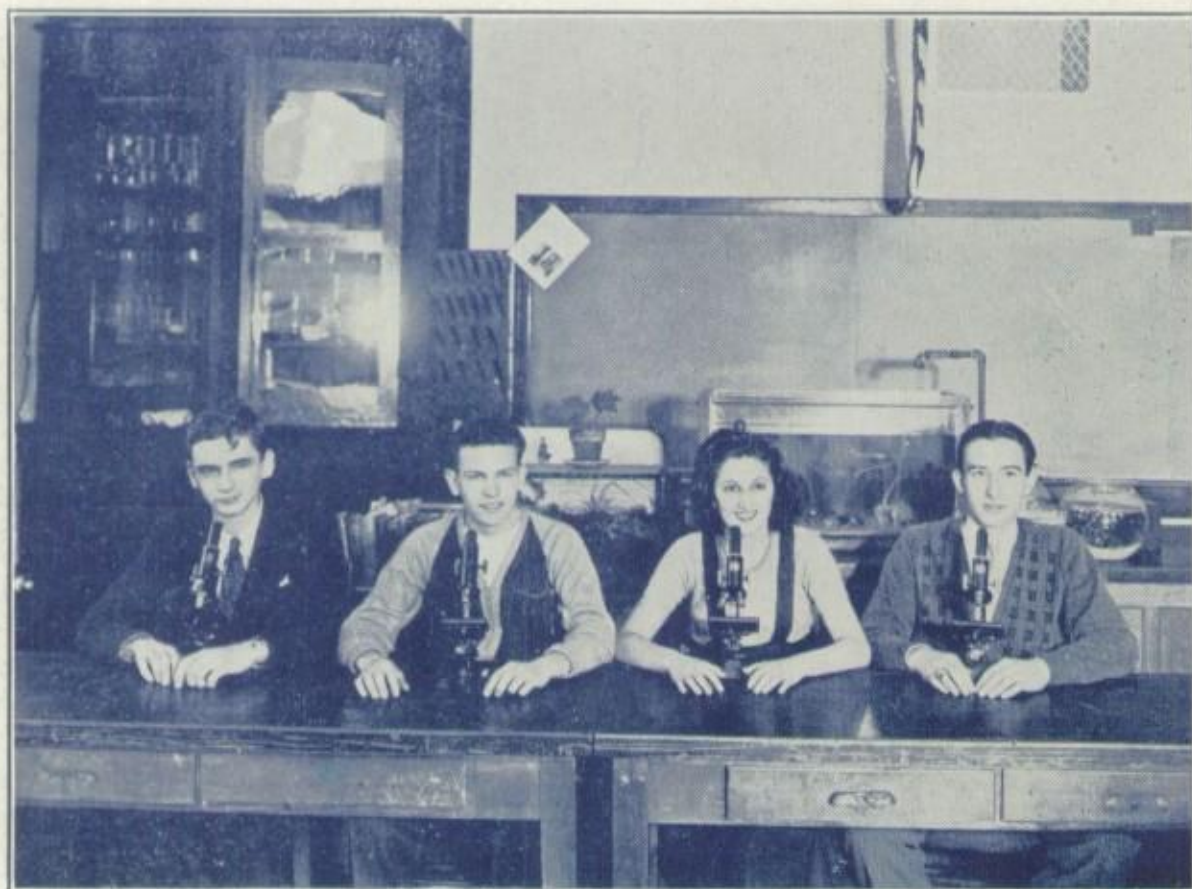

Faculty AdviserMiss M. Woods

Faculty AdviserMiss E. Wagner

Officers

President Charles Albisetti
Secretary Margaret Ryan
Treasurer Bernard Brill
Publicity Manager Charles Albisetti

This term marks the twelfth year of the Organization of the Biology Club as a means to stimulate interest in the study of Biology and to afford the doing of work beyond the scope of the classroom for those students who are eager and willing to do extra work. The meetings which are held every other Monday are devoted to lectures, dissection, modeling, and microscopic work. The members have semi-annual hikes, make trips to museums, zoo and the aquarium, and are given the opportunity to attend the special science courses offered by the American Institute of Science and Engineering Club, of which the Biology Club is a member.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Faculty Adviser Miss E. S. Rank

Officers

President Grace Kolisch
 Vice-President Ruby Wagner
 Secretary Doris Garey
 Treasurer Ruth Savarese
 Publicity Manager Theodore Meth

The Dramatic Club this term has been very busy in preparing for the presentation of two plays. The first entitled, "Pink for Proposals," a comedy, was given on May thirteenth at Newark at the annual Forensic League Play Festival. The Dramatic Club is a member of the League. The cast included Eleanor Anrig (Zelda), Jacqueline Murney (Mabdi), Claire Deutsch (Aunt Maisie), Edna Caspar (Labelia), Italo La Rocco (Howard), Anthony Oslover (Eddie), and Aaron Klein (Mr. Cranshaw).

The second called "He ain't Done Right by Nell," a thrilling, hair-raising, old-fashioned melodrama was offered on Wednesday, May 24th during the fourth period to a very appreciative and appropriately hissing and sissing audience. Nell the beautiful heroin was played by

As Union Hill's only honor society the English Club has been the pace-setter in club activities throughout the school. Its activity centers about two main features, one of sponsoring the weekly assembly programs and the other in the interesting group discussion meetings. These groups are the foundation of the organization in that the Club strives to encourage an interest in good literature, and correct speech in its members.

Its membership numbers some 100 pupils, and is open to all students who are satisfactorily recommended by their English teachers. The Club is divided into five groups and a Press Staff.

Freshman Book Group Mrs. Jameson
 Sophomore Current Literature Group Miss Morton
 Junior Magazine Group Miss Rosso
 Senior Creative Writing Group Mr. Simon
 Senior Drama Reading Group Mr. Simon
 (This group attended the Broadway Show "Rocket to the Moon" on March 28, 1939).

Among the newcomers to Union Hill's Circle of Clubs is the Deutsche Verein, which was organized in the spring of 1937 as a division of the Language Club.

Their meetings are the significant factor which helps to better acquaint their members with the German Language. At these meetings certain selected members are in charge of entertainment and refreshments. However, all activities are not held only in the school, for the members (numbering some forty all of whom

In the year 1925, Union High School was blessed with an outstanding addition to its faculty and activity, for in September of that year, Miss Elizabeth Reber took over the guidance of the music department, bringing with her the idea of a girls' glee club. As the years rolled on, the organization grew and began to color the school's many diversified activities. Representatives of the school are now sent annually to the New Jersey State Chorus at Atlantic City. Last year Alpha Caliandro and Carol Wenneis were our representatives. Recently the Glee Club combined forces with the English Department and presented a program consisting of music which was inspired by poems from shakespeare.

In order to be eligible for membership in the Glee Club, the applicant must pass a test which determines whether she can carry a tune, whether she is able to sing true to pitch, and whether she possesses the ability to carry a part. Membership originally was limited to forty members, but this year due to the abundance of good voices and natural talent in the school, Miss Reber has taken in many more. The season winds up in the form of a party held in the gymnasium in June, at which time new officers are elected and new members are initiated.

Charlotte Kleiner is the pianist for the group and Alpha Caliandro occasionally assists

Publicity Manager Harold Eby

The History Forum has been long active as a discussion group of current political affairs, both at home and abroad, and the economic condition of the world. It is the intention of the organization to foster an interest in history and the social sciences through modern, interesting, and up-to-date discussions of the topics of the day which are vitally important to each and every one. The wide scope and variety of topics, that have come to the public forefront, have necessitated the formation of four subdivisions:

European Affairs—Mr. Simon:

Mr. Simon's group proved very interesting and popular throughout the year, due to the tense political situation prevailing in Europe, along with frequent threats of an impending war. All members of the group have built up a clear idea of the plans of Hitler, Mussolini and Chamberlain, and have some conception of the causes, and possible effects of the muddle of central Europe.

Current Events—Mr. Aichelman:

The discussions of this group cover the items read daily in the newspapers. They are living topics, which eventually will find their way into the history books of tomorrow. Mr. Aichelman's ever-ready knowledge of the news events has helped many of the members to take a wider interest in the newspapers.

Pan-American Group—Miss Barth:

During the last few years the Language Club has developed into a club well deserving of much praise. It now consists of two subdivisions, a German Club and an Italian Club. In these groups it has been made more possible to foster an interest in different languages.

On March 10, they presented a novel dance, featuring Hawaiian entertainment amid a Hawaiian Atmosphere.

At their meetings interesting talks were delivered and at several, refreshments were served.

Once again the school whole-heartedly got behind the Magazine drive, and brought in a total of $1,400, which exceeded the 1937 mark by over $200. The proceeds of the drive, our share being $700, is used towards the support of the library. The money is used to purchase books and magazines.

Mr. Aichelman was in charge, and was assisted by Miss Brown, Miss Walters, Mrs. Scanlon, Miss Najarian, and Mr. Ostroff. John Rover was the student manager, Ruth Crystal the assistant manager.

ORCHESTRA

Orchestra Director Mr. L. Scarmolin

This year the Orchestra appeared a number of times at the assembly programs. Their enjoyable and much appreciated music has added a good deal to the interest of the assemblies. The orchestra also played at all the Union City graduation exercises.

A period show of cartoons starring Mickey Rooney was given, and also an afternoon dance.

Professor Scarmolin was a recent winner of the National Orchestral prize for 1939 as well as a winner of the Franklin Institute prize.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Officers

President John Kelley
Recording Secretary Ernest Vadersen
Corresponding Secretary Erwin Kramer
Faculty Adviser Mr. E. Meyer

Photography for a long time has been one of the most popular hobbies of Union Hill students. This year a number of the more ambitious enthusiasts have formed a photography club.

The meetings are mainly devoted to discussions and lectures by the various members. The topics concern practical photographic subjects and include light, lenses, shutters, filters, exposure and many more. Members also offer valuable hints and suggestions. The work of the individual members is very often discussed by the club, so that each member may benefit by the mistakes and ability of others.

A dark room has been constructed in the basement by the members. Here they are actually able to come in contact with photographic processes, and dark room technique, all of which are necessary for good photography.

For the last three years the Press Staff has published a weekly column of school news in the Hudson Dispatch on Monday.

During the past semester this youngest division of the English Club has produced a bi-weekly paper which is called "The Clarion".

The newer members of the staff work on the column, while the more experienced ones take charge of "The Clarion".

Various lectures on journalism have been given throughout the term by the organization's two faculty advisers, Miss Dorothy De Pietro and Miss Alice Walters, Mr. H. Papale and other speakers.

The purpose of the Press Staff is to make possible journalistic activities for the students, to publicize other activities of the school and to develop a school paper which will excel all others in New Jersey.

IL BIMBO

Il Bimbo is the newest addition to Union Hill and the Language Club. Organized this term as an honorary group under the leadership of Miss M. Concilio, it has as its aim the promotion of better understanding of the Italian Language.

Their meetings, held twice a month, are devoted to the singing of Italian songs, conversing in Italian, and playing various Italian games. Lotto and verb games have been extremely popular with the members, especially with the winners, who received as prizes exemption from paying dues for a term.

MECHANICAL DRAWING CLUB

The purpose of the recently organized Mechanical Drawing Club is to bring together those boys who are interested in the discussion of the recent developments in industry, so that their general intelligence and technical knowledge may be enlarged.

Six meetings have been held since the beginning of the term. The Club is growing at every meeting in numbers and enthusiasm.

Aeronautics and Diesel engines have proven to be interesting subjects for investigation.

The officers of the club are:

The entire group ardently hopes to instill an appreciation of a finer type of entertainment in Union Hillers, and to give actual performances of plays, which the students themselves direct. New members are chosen on a competitive basis. Prospective members must give probationary speeches, and if approved of by a majority of the members he or she is admitted.

Miss Reber in conducting the singing. Noteworthy of the Glee Club is the splendid spirit that prevails at all times. This is due to the fact that the girls love to sing and attend meetings for the joy of singing. This attitude results in a feeling of friendliness which makes each meeting enjoyable.

The purpose of the organization is simply expressed as "the advancement of music for the joy and happiness that it creates". Recently the girls chose Fritz Kreisler's "The Old Refrain" for their particular song to which Miss Reber has adopted appropriate words. The girls all receive credits for a set number of year's attendance. Also, upon graduation, if the girl has been regular in attendance and has paid for her required dues for at least two years, she receives the much sought after gold G-Clef pin.

Lengthy discussions have been also held concerning Uncle Sam's "good neighbor" policy, which is the President's method of attaining this friendship.

Junior History Forum:

This new group comprises Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen. The group has proved very successful. Up until this term, the History Forum was merely a club for seniors. The meetings are well attended, and it is sincerely hoped they will continue to be so.

Aside from the meetings, the Forum sponsored a dance on Friday, April 28th, to which they invited several other clubs.

TROPHY AND CHAMPIONS IN GYM

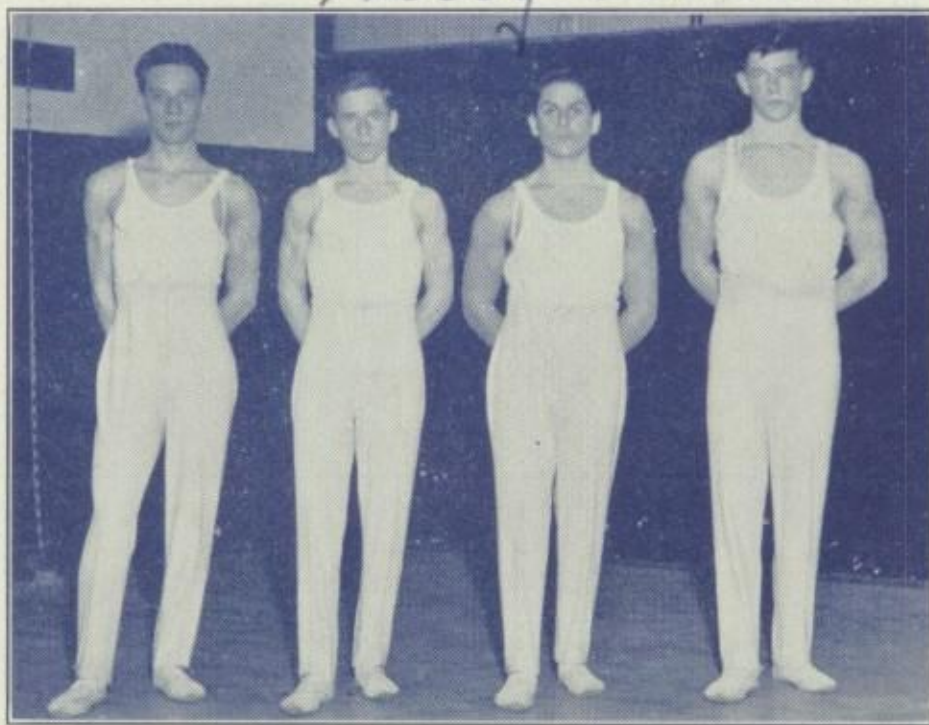

This season marked the fifth anniversary of the organization of the Union Hill gym team. By way of celebration our gymnasts brought home the New Jersey State and the Metropolitan A. A. U. championship crowns, following an undefeated season of dual meets.

Again our roaming gymnasts traveled to distant points to vie for gymnastic honors against the freshman teams. The results of the seven dual meets are as follows:

February	1	Union Hill35	—	Alumni28
February	26	Union Hill34	—	Navy20
March	1	Union Hill46	—	Lincoln20
March	6	Union Hill36	—	Dickinson18
March	8	Union Hill30	—	Army24
March	11	Union Hill36	—	Princeton16
March	20	Union Hill39	—	Emerson15
March	25	Annual New Jersey Interscholastic Gym Championships - Union Hill first - 34 1/3 points —
April 1,	14th	Annual A. A. U. Gymnastic Championships - Union Hill first - 72 points.

Harry Robinson

The most outstanding performers of the season were Co-Captains Harry Robinson and Harold Eby, Val Bloch and Howard Bothe.

Harry Robinson won the State Championship on the Horizontal Bar, and the Metropolitan Championship on the Horizontal Bar and in Tumbling.

Harold Eby won the State Championship on the Flying Rings for the second consecutive year.

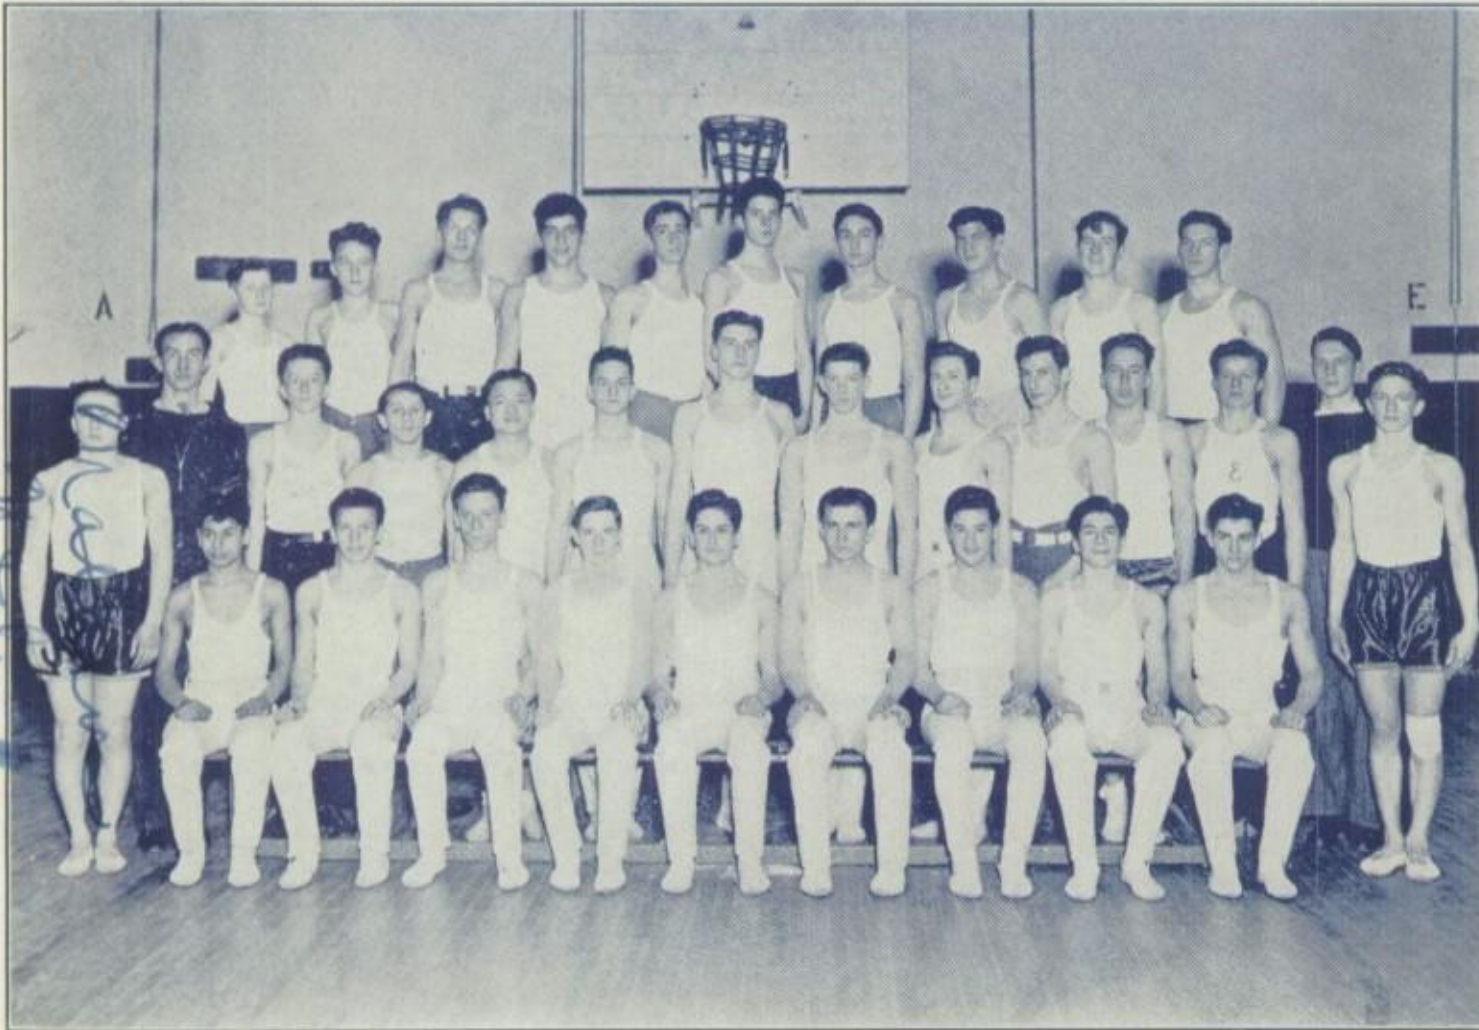

Val Bloch placed first on the Side Horse in both the State and Metropolitan Meets.

Howard Bothe promising junior, came out on top in the Parallel Bar competition at the State meet, and won first place honors on the Long Horse at the Metropolitan meet.

GYM TEAM

Coach Mr. Marcel Gleyre

The team would certainly never have had so successful a season had it not been for the flawless coaching of Mr. Gleyre. Only through his tireless efforts, unceasing plugging, sound advice, and dogged determination to turn out a championship team were our gymnasts able to overwhelmingly defeat every team that it met in competition. Much of the credit, also, is due to Charles Albisetti, whose skillful managing helped bring the team from its infancy of four years ago to the high status it now enjoys.

Other members of the teams who displayed fine ability and who performed well this season are Andrew Dujnic, Philip Mednick, William Troisi, Morris Zaslavsky, Edward Leone, Robert Zinzi, Clarence Robinson, Henry Bowrquin, Robert Goldstein, George Seifert, and John Mahoney.

GYM TEAM HIGHLIGHTS

Lower Left—Throwing pennies at Tecumseh

Upper Right—Mahoney, Herzog and Melnick beneath French Drummer Boy.

Lower Right—Middies line up between classes at Annapolis.

TENNIS TEAM

This year's net squad is one of the most powerful ever assembled at the school. With the exception of two promising Sophomores, it is composed of veterans. The team is headed by Co-Captains Mark Hodges, ex-county boy's champion and quarter-finalist in the Eastern Interscholastic Tournament, and Fred Greenberg, who is completing his third year on the squad.

The installation of Mr. Modarelli as coach assures the team of expert instruction and capable handling.

Fourteen matches have been scheduled by Manager Finger, including St. Peters, Woodrow Wilson, Emerson, Ferris, Lincoln, Memorial, Bayonne, Dickinson and Tenaflly.

BASEBALL TEAM

Mr. C. Wright

“Skeets” Wright has once again turned out a baseball team. Having had fine material to choose from, “Skeets” finally decided the following would represent Union Hill in the interscholastic baseball league: co-captains Bob Kunle, first baseman and Bill Brady, second baseman; Thomas Mirabella, third baseman; Pat De Felice, Joe Higgins, and Angelo Demarinus, pitchers; George Regstorff, catcher; Walter Rehbit, short stop; Henry Evans, Joe Rizzo, John Wilson, and Eddie Schueler, outfielders; Red Pasch, infielder; and Sidoti, Purdy, Policastro, and Danish, alternates. Mike Graziano has been chosen manager.

On April 28, the track team traveled to Philadelphia to take part in the annual Penn Relays. The results were:

April 28 ¼ Mile Relay—3rd Place.
 April 29 1 Mile Relay—7th Place.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Mr. Faltings
Manager John Scutier
Captain William Taible

Last season witnessed the innovation of another cog in the sports circle of Union Hill. George E. Faltings, former track mentor, originated the idea and proceeded to engage four teams for competition. East Rutherford, Cliffside, Ferris, and Emerson completed the schedule.

The members of the newly formed team were Bill Taible, Ed Sullivan, Larry Dessart, John Mahoney, John Sidoti, Ed Garian, and Joe Dalie.

BOY'S BASKETBALL

Coach

Mr. Faltings

Fred Spina

Fred Cospito

Jessie Natali Union Hill had a schedule of 18 games for the 1938-1939 basketball season. They won 9 and lost 9 for an average of 50%. Of these 18 games, 10 were league games and of the ten league games we won 4 and lost 6 for a county average of 40%. We finished in fourth place for county standings. Because of a good showing in the last half of the county games Union Hill was invited to participate in the State Tournaments of the Group IV schools. We won our first three state tournament games:

Union Hill 29 vs. Dickinson 22

Union Hill 39 vs. Emerson 26

Union Hill 31 vs. Passaic 22

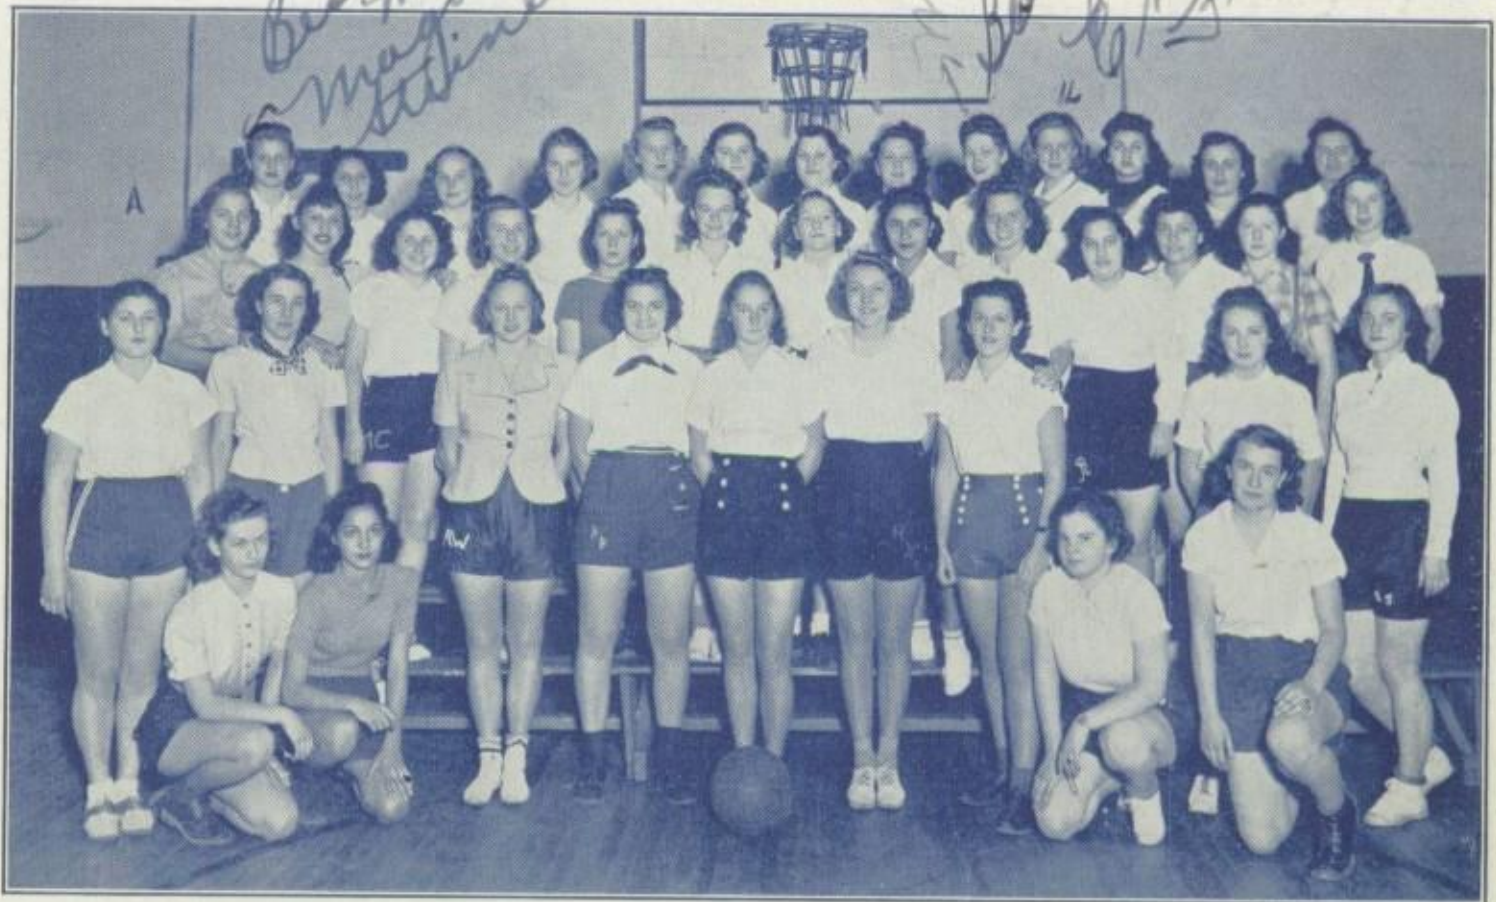

but were eliminated by our arch-rival, Memorial, by a score of 20-31. Union Hill's squad was co-captained by those two able men, Fred Spina and William Brady. The members of the varsity who are to graduate are as follows: Harold Frome, James Campbell, Fred Cospito, Fred Spina, and Clayton Hart.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Coach

Miss Losowich

The Union Hill Girls Athletic Association is once more in existence, this time under the able guidance of Miss Ann Losowich, gym instructor. The object of the association is to give every girl an opportunity to enjoy an active part in such sports as basketball and soft ball.

Field Day has become an annual event in Union City, and the girls of Union Hill always take an active part in making it a success. The officials of Union Hill and Emerson choose one hundred girls from each of the two schools to perform. The first year the Union Hill girls exercised with Indian Clubs; the second year they did rhythmic exercises in formation; and this year, because of the prominence of the World's Fair, the formation used was the symbol of the Fair. Union Hill formed the Perisphere, while Emerson formed the Trylon.

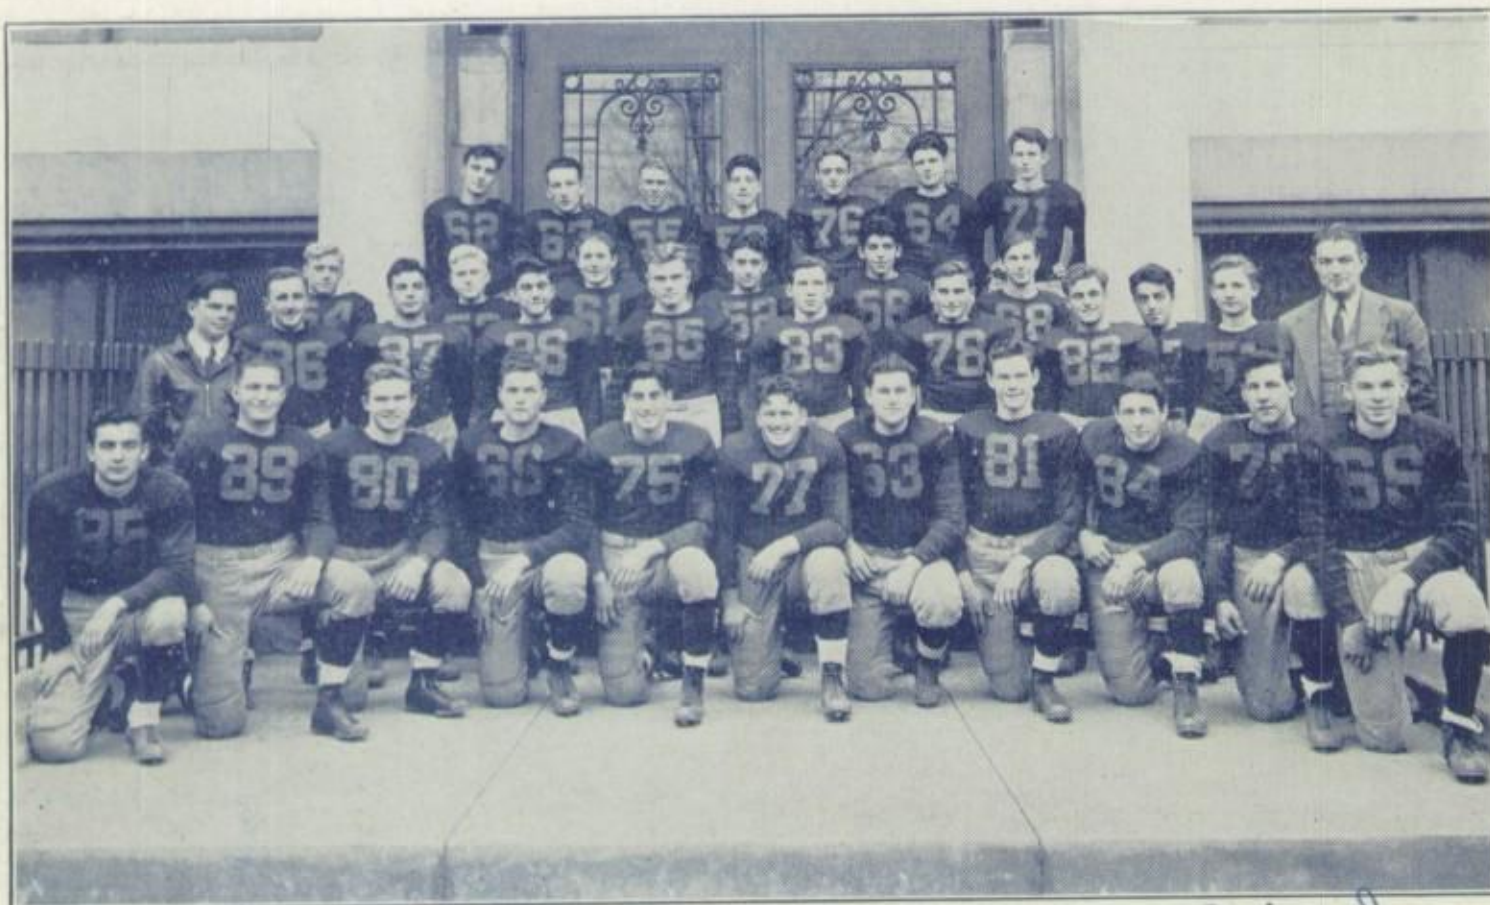

The Association has organized six class teams, consisting of 3 Sophomore teams, 2 Junior teams, and 1 Senior Team. Three games are played every Tuesday afternoon in the gym from 3:15 to 5:00.

The soft-ball season has now begun. The teams are picked on the same basis as the basketball squads and games are played in the school-yard.

FOOTBALL

Coach Mr. B. Finn

Lennie March

After losing three close games to Bayonne, Ferris, and Lincoln, the 1938 football team soundly trounced Dickinson and completed the season with decisive victories over our two closest rivals, Memorial and Emerson.

Joe Rizzo has been elected captain of the 1939 team, and Victor Trabulsi and Dominick Lamanna are to be co-managers. Many veterans return for the 1939 season, forming a strong nucleus.

Union Hill		Opponent	SCHEDULE FOR 1939

THE BAND

Faculty Adviser Mr. Sanborne

For three years the band has thrilled the hearts of many a Union Hiller with its stirring music, school songs and spectacular marching.

What is more inspiring to any loyal Union student than to see the colorful and brilliant array of orange and blue sweeping across the vast expanse of the field of Roosevelt Stadium in a "moving U" formation.

Under the direction of Mr. Sanborne this fanfare has gone a long way on the road to stimulate greater school spirit.

In May of this term the band appeared at the annual Union City Field Day. They also played at several of the assemblies in conjunction with the programs of the English Department.

Some 55 members, including the bugle corps, have conscientiously met every Friday morning to practice. New instruments have been added, for this term the band has shown an increase in the number of trombones (one to three) and clarinets (two to five).

TOWERS OF THE EAST

Reminiscent of Burmese Temples, these twin Towers of the East look out on the Lake of Nations on Treasure Island. The entrance in the center leads to the Court of Flowers.

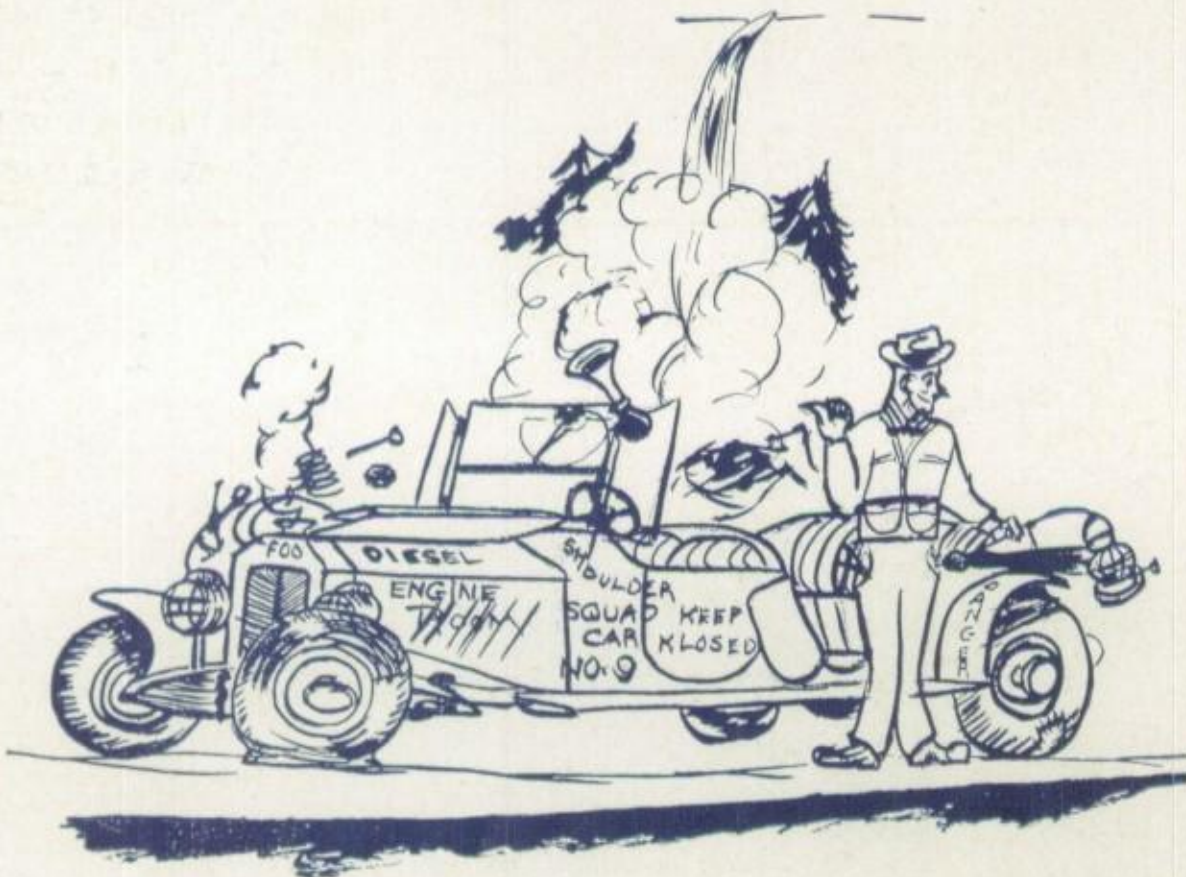

I searched my head and tried to find
Those very words I had in mind
Think if you can what the pen can do
To set down a story as we have for you.

My Auto

My auto 'tis of thee
Short cut to poverty
Of thee I chant,
I spent a pile of dough
On you one year ago,
Now you refuse to go
Or won't, or can't.

Thru town and countryside,
You were my joy and pride
Each happy day.
I loved thy blackish hue,
Thy tires of white, so new
But now you're done and through,
In every way.

To thee old rattletrap
Came many bump and rap,
I grieve for thee,
Thy poor old top is torn,
Thy seats are sadly worn,
A wheeze affects thy horn,
For thee I grieve.

Evolution

FRESHMEN

Here is a freshman
So hardy and bold
Whose stories of teachers
Are yet to be told.

SOPHOMORE

Now he's a sophomore
Who really believes
The world would run down
If he were to leave.

JUNIOR

Well now he's a junior
Whose boast you will hear
He'll be thinking of college
By this time next year.

SENIOR

And when he's a senior
He worries about
The very near future
And if he'll get out.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating Class of June 1939, being of sound mind (?) and memory, and mindful of the uncertainty of this life, do hereby make and establish the following to be our last will and testament.

To the class of February 1940 we do bequeath our responsible position as Senior B's in the hope that they will fill it as capably and efficiently as have we, the Class of June '39.

To the Juniors, we do present our good wishes and trust that their Senior Year may be as enjoyable as ours has been.

To the Sophomores, we do leave a portion of our sophistication, which they need to distinguish themselves from the freshmen.

To the Freshmen, we leave the hope that they too may someday become seniors.

To the Faculty, we do bequeath memories of our cleverness and our constant efforts to comply with their every wish.

Individually we make the following bequests:

To those who are unfortunate enough to succeed me, I, Morris Zaslavsky, leave my inability to comprehend the scientific ravings of a certain physics teacher.

I, Frank Capone, bequeath to John Monziona my ability to play hooky and not get caught.

I, John Medvedik, do bequeath my desk with all its initials and markings to a Junior who will occupy my beloved homeroom.

I, George Pepperted, bequeath to John Doe my ability of never coming to school on time.

I, Celeste Tamborrino, bequeath my ability to remain awake during Problems, to Ann Ayroldi.

I, Warren Wittmer, bequeath to Allen Vane my ability to talk myself out of the late room.

I, Lillian Gartner, leave to all future sub-treasurers my ability to try to collect dues.

I, Ruth Savarese, hereby bequeath to any student who wants it the ability to make a dash for the homeroom door, before the late bell, without knocking the teacher down.

I, Randi Knutsen, bequeath my beloved seat in the late room to some deserving pupil.

I, Max Elias Roll, do hereby bequeath to Leo Ring, my ability to cut classes, annoy the teachers, pass without studying, and flunk all tests.

I, Rhoda Ortega, bequeath to my sister, Pauline, who can't do one thing straight; my ability to do three things at one time and still preserve my youthful countenance.

I, Harold Kravetsky will to Louis Jalowsky my ability to graduate in four years.

I, Kathryn Rochford, bequeath to Dot Levenson, my ability to chew gum in class without being caught.

I, Ruth Fiedler, bequeath to anyone who may want it, my ability to really study during study periods.

Farewell

There comes a time in all our lives
when we must say farewell.
Good-by in any language holds a thought we can't dispell:
Sometimes of disappointment and sometimes of regret,
But happy is the time when we can really recollect,
Some happy times together and then
find our destinies,
Then come back to old reunions to review some memories.
So with these thoughts in mind and all the sentiments we know,
The magic chain of happiness will find us on the go
Beginning life together in activities anew,
With plans and realizations that are waiting there for you.
So let us look ahead at our commencement with the thought
That we have reaped the harvest that our high school days have brought.

NEW YORK FAIR GROUNDS

CHAPTER THE SECOND

Shall we ask what lies ahead

or wait for fortunes bright

For if we have a faith and hope the path will lead aright . .

Miss E. Felch

Orchids to Miss Felch, dean of girls. Abounding energy, warmth of heart, simple sincerity and a delightful sense of humor these are the enviable characteristics that have endeared her to not only her girls but to the big happy family that makes up Union Hill.

Mr. H. Hanes

Step up and shake the hand of a "regular fellow" who is the dean of boys. He has been instrumental in instilling a sense of pride in "getting ahead". His foresight and wisdom have brought immeasurable happiness to those of us who were fortunate in being associated with Mr. Hanes.

He's got wavy hair of which he's proud,
And is liked by everyone in the crowd."*

HAROLD EBY

*"Harold makes us proud of him,
Because he is the tops in gym,
Not only that, for he is smart,
And for his school has done his part."*

LOUIS FEIT

*"Louis helps us to cross the street,
And he's the nicest policeman you ever did meet,
He's polite at all times to teachers and friends,
And a fellow like that, a success always ends."*

JAMES GEORGE POULOS

*"Jimmy on his violin plays,
He'll be famous one of these days,
When he begins to go to town,
He'll reach heights of great rekknown."*

EUGENE PRATO

*"Eugene's the instigator of many a prank,
But he's liked by all in every rank,
Be they young or old, short or tall,
He wins the hearts of one and all."*

JEROME SOLOMON

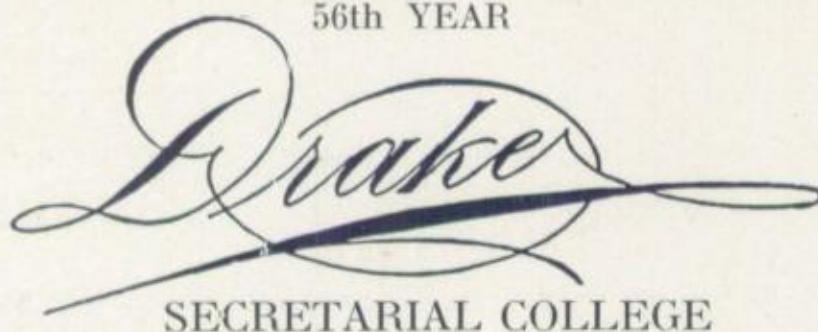

*"Jerry sells ear-muffs all the year round,
And from here to the Annex he's lost many a pound.
He tells all the freshmen if ear-muffs they will buy,
When they come to this building, each will be a great guy."*

MILTON E. ZERMAN

*"Milton's short and kind of cute,
With light brown hair and freckles to boot,
There isn't a soul he doesn't know,
And helps to keep them from trouble and woe."*
